

BREAKING NEWS: I-CAN MOBILIZES IN FLORIDA...

Jim Brown visited scene of a tragedy in Bradenton, Florida, accompanied by Florida Legislators Arthenia Joyner, D-Tampa and Mike Bennett, R-Bradenton. 9-year old Stacy Williams III was killed during a gang-related conflict. "I'm going to fight for this area," Brown vowed to a crowd gathered at the Palmetto City Hall. Meanwhile, Amer-I-Can Program President, Dean Renfrow was in Tampa meeting with the Florida Network, a diverse group of policy makers. Renfrow was asked to join the Network's Board of Directors and he consented. More on the burgeoning presence of Amer-I-Can in Florida in the next edition of the paper.

NFL Hall of Famer Jim Brown, right, joined by Florida State Senator Arthenia Joyner, at left, talks about the area's escalating gang problem during a press conference at Palmetto's city hall Monday morning.