

21 COMMUNITY RESIDENTS GRADUATE LIFE MANAGEMENTS SKILLS CLASS CONDUCTED IN 10TH DISTRICT OFFICE OF LA COUNCILMAN HERB WESSON, JR

Los Angeles 10th District City Councilman Herb Wesson, Jr. marveled at the dedication and commitment of his constituents who completed the 15-chapter Life Management Skills training class held in his offices. "These facilities are available to this program at any time in the future and anything I can do to help reach more citizens, my office is at Amer-I-Can's disposal," Wesson said. "The diversity of this class (senior citizens, men and women, boys and girls) speaks volumes about the universality of 'the responsibility of self-determination' and willingness of all people to improve the quality of their lives," opined Amer-I-Can's founder, Jim Brown.

The 21 graduates were: Robin Gentry, Jonathan Townsend, Nell Ivory, Velma Anderson, Aliassa Donald, Brenda Diaz, Rodney Johnson, Agnes Zuniga, Alden Stephen, Anthony

Stephen, Agnes Stephen, Mattie Spencer, Rico Rigo, Shurlene Fahie, Bill Sanders, Melissa Patterson, Chevela Quinn, Marquis Rangel and Keith Parker. The class was facilitated by Skipp Townsend.

A debt of gratitude is owed to Councilman Wesson, staff members Deron Williams and Ms. Billie Green; the Neighborhood Council (Ms. Stevie Stern, and Johnnie Raines).
