

North/South ICAN Graduation

Hollywood Hills, California

The estate of Amer-I-Can Founder and Chairman Jim Brown's was populated by family, friends, students and community members graduating from the Life Management Skills curriculum. The graduation ceremonies featured students and community members from northern California who'd completed instruction provided by Gonzolo Rucobo (Northern California Regional Manager). Students from Alliance Charter School (Los Angeles) and Jonas Salk Charter School (Los Angeles) also received their completion certificates from Amer-I-Can Facilitators Ronnie 'Loonie' Barron and Marcus 'Big Shipp' Bell. Via telephone from Cleveland, Ohio, the graduates were saluted and inspired by the admonitions of Jim Brown to apply the principles of the curriculum in their way forward.

Monique Brown, Director of Operations for the Amer-I-Can Program for Social Change and Founder of Amer-I-Can Women and Girls, represented the foundation at the commencement exercises.
