

Monique Brown

Monique Brown currently serves as the Vice-Chair for the Amer-I-Can Foundation, working side by side with her husband, Jim Brown, in prisons and communities across the country. Monique Brown has been with Amer-I-Can for seven years and her responsibilities have included managing the day to day business operations of the National Amer-I-Can offices, serving as former Secretary and Treasurer of the Amer-I-Can Foundation, and conducting life skills training as a facilitator of the Amer-I-Can curriculum in California.